Virtual jobs events planned for new Amazon facility in Somerset County

As Amazon gets ready to open a new large facility in Franklin, Somerset County, job seekers can learn more about opportunities in the company during two upcoming virtual events in the coming weeks.

The Greater Raritan Workforce Development Board, serving Hunterdon and Somerset counties, is working with the company to organize information sessions on the Somerset County job openings.

Amazon is looking to fill more than 2,000 openings for the facility scheduled to open in mid-December. The virtual sessions planned for 11 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 24, and 11 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 1, will focus on Amazon's application procedure, hiring procedures, benefits and more. Depending upon the level of interest, additional sessions can be added.

"These upcoming events are another way the Greater Raritan Workforce Development Board is helping local residents connect with career opportunities in these challenging times," said Paul Grzella, GRWDB director. "We are using these events as ways to learn about how we can offer additional virtual job information sessions and jobs fairs in the future.

Community members also will find up-to-date labor information about job trends and skill needs on the Resource /Labor Market Information tab of www.thegrwdb.org. Information about upcoming webinars and career-related programs can be found on the calendar tab of the site.
