

Align Your Potential by Identifying Your Natural Abilities

MULTIPLE NATURES

Have you completed your education without a clear understanding of your natural strengths and how to make career choices that align with your potential?

Would you like to identify your unique talents to determine the best path to obtain success both professionally and personally?

Each person has a unique set of traits which provides a predisposition towards different types of work and activities. Multiple Natures is a career and life assessment tool that can help one achieve perfect alignment. The assessment assists individuals in their quest for self-improvement and finding the flow to fulfill their true potential.

The better you understand yourself the better the decisions you can make for your life. Attend this workshop with Multiple Natures Practitioner Jan Goodman and unlock the secret of your unique natures to help you identify and engage your natural abilities to the highest level.
