

What Employers Need to Know: State Labor Experts Talk About COVID Regulations

FREE Webinar
Tuesday, April 6th
10 am - 11 am

Speakers include:

Mark Wadiak
Assistant Director, NJDOL
OSHA-PEOSH
Consultation and Training

Holly Low
Manager of Strategic Outreach,
NJDOL

New Jersey employers are working hard to keep their businesses open and safe during COVID-19. During this FREE webinar, New Jersey Department of Labor & Workforce Development representatives will discuss COVID-19 health and safety standards, as well as state and federal worker benefits and protections.

This presentation is brought to you by three agencies working to serve businesses' needs in the area: the Greater Raritan Workforce Development Board, the Hunterdon County Chamber of Commerce and the Somerset County Business Partnership.

Employers in Hunterdon and Somerset counties attending the webinar will hear about:

- Paid leave and job protections
- COVID-19 health and safety standards
- Health and safety training and consultation
- And more!

To register for the FREE webinar, go to: <http://bit.ly/2OjSqU8>

More information about this and other programs for employers in Hunterdon and Somerset counties is available on the websites of the event's presenting partners.

