July One-Stop Notes & Highlights:

- Effective July 1st, The State of New Jersey reinstituted pre-pandemic requirements for the Work First NJ program. This includes work activity requirements for public assistance recipients that were previously waived in March of 2020. Greater Raritan One-Stop coordinates these services in Somerset & Hunterdon Counties in partnership with Dept. of Labor and Hunterdon County Educational Services Commission.
- To date, One-Stop and Hunterdon County ESC staff have received referrals for and contacted over 146 Work First NJ participants since July 1st.
- Our new program year began July 1st, at which time we require training providers to sign updated agreements with the One-Stop. We have received agreements from 39 training providers so far; representing hundreds of in-demand industry recognized training programs available to residents of Somerset & Hunterdon Counties.

Probation Job & Educational Fair

On July 29th, One-Stop staff along with representatives from the GRWDB presented information about available resources for job seekers to over 40 Somerset County residents who are currently unemployed and on probation.

In addition to learning about resources available through the One-Stop and GRWDB, attendees were also able to meet with hiring representatives from 6 local employers in need of immediate hires.

This event is part of a larger effort to ensure that information about our services reach all areas of the community, especially underserved populations. In addition to helping community members with difficult barriers, this also serves our local employers who need connections to qualified candidates needed to fill immediate positions.

There are currently five generations in the workforce, and employers faced with mass retirements of Baby Boomers are looking for ways to prepare for the changes that will result. This course examines the history and reality of the generation gap.

This course explores whether defining the actual limits of each generation is most important, or whether the merits of people within the context of employment is the bigger issue. Understanding others helps us to understand ourselves and to manage the people that we work with. We will explore problems, solutions, and strategies to help overcome issues of the generation gap.

What You Will Cover:

- History in brief
- Finding common ground
- Silents, Boomers, Xers, Ys, and Millennials
- Recruiting that bridges the gap
- Pre-assignment review
- Solutions

- Developing targeted retention strategies
- What we really want

How You Will Benefit:

- Develop our understanding of where the generations gap issue surfaces, and the impact it has on the modern workforce.
- Understand and apply language that is specific to each generation currently in the workplace.
- Explore organization strategies that overcome gap issues.
- Evaluate the need and effectiveness of recruiting, retention, and succession plans in context of the generation gap.

HOW TO THRIVE DURING TRANSITION AND CHANGE

Times of transition hold both challenges and opportunities. What are you really committed to in this moment?

Tony Robbins once said, "Quality questions create a quality life."

- Is your behavior consistent with what you are committed to?
- Are you present and engaged in your own life?
- Are you satisfied with your choices?
- Would you like to make better choices in the future?

Our life is made up of decisions. When we ask the right questions it heightens our awareness and allows us to see more clearly. The strategies and philosophies that will be presented in this workshop provide attendees with tools that self-empower. The workshop is designed to help you achieve your personal best both professionally and personally. It's a point of view that is based on choice. Self-empowerment feeds our unconscious mind to make conscious choices that allow us to be successful.
