New Jersey Post Offices Part of Statewide USPS Job Fair Blitz 63 Statewide Locations Participating in Hiring Effort

NEW JERSEY — The U.S. Postal Service is kicking off the month of February with a New Jersey job fair blitz!

As part of our innovative and bold 10-year plan, Delivering for America, the Postal Service is focused on building a more stable and empowered workforce. Our employees are our greatest asset, and we are currently investing in our new employees by providing robust training and on-the-job support.

During the first week of February, USPS is hoping to hire 600 City Carrier Assistants (CCA's) at job fairs to be held at 63 post offices across the state.

The starting pay is $19.33 an hour

Please Note: The United States Postal Service is an independent federal establishment, mandated to be self-financing and to serve every American community through the affordable, reliable and secure delivery of mail and packages to nearly 165 million addresses six and often seven days a week. Overseen by a bipartisan Board of Governors, the Postal Service is implementing a 10-year transformation plan, Delivering for America, to modernize the postal network, restore long-term financial sustainability, dramatically improve service across all mail and shipping categories, and maintain the organization as one of America's most valued and trusted brands.

The Postal Service generally receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.
