Did you know the One-Stop Training Services Center has a Public Resource Area?

The One-Stop Training Services Centers in Somerville and Flemington both include computers that are publicly available to job seekers to use for their job search, to work on their resume, and for other employment related tasks. In addition to computers, job seekers can use a copier, printers, and even receive assistance and support from One-Stop staff. Appointments are required for our Flemington location, and in Somerville appointments are preferred but walk-in's are welcome on a first come first serve basis.

With the increase popularity of smart phones, we continue to see more and more individuals who lack access to a desktop computer or laptop. Not all job applications are conducive to smart phones, and updating your resume certainly isn't easy this way either.

The One-Stop public resource area also includes webcams for any job seeker who needs to use one for a virtual job interview. Appointments must be made in advance, but the individual would have a private room set up with a webcam and desktop computer.

With the many changes in the job market over the past several years, the One-Stop always aims to provide services that align with the current needs of our community.

Please check out our success story on the next page that highlights how our public resource area can support our customers.

Greater Raritan One-Stop at the 4-H Fair

As we continue to see more and more in-person events being scheduled, One-Stop staff members Teresa Edwards and Sofia Bandeira enjoyed a breath of fresh air as they shared job seeker services at the annual Somerset County 4-H fair, which attracts over 60,000 people a day.

One-Stop services were also shared at the Hunterdon County 4-H fair later in the month through many of our community partners in attendance.

Variety in the types of outreach and events we market our services through, helps us to reach different parts of our community that have been previously unaware of these important resources.

Expanded One-Stop Training Services Hours!

We are excited to announce that the One-Stop Training Services Center will begin offering expanded evening hours every Monday beginning September 26th, 2022.

New One-Stop Training Services Center Hours

Monday – 8:30am – 7:00pm

Tuesday – Friday – 8:30am – 4:30pm

Staff is available during these expanded hours for in-person and virtual appointments.

In a continued effort to increase accessibility to One-Stop services, these expanded hours will be offered as a pilot program to collect feedback on the use and effectiveness of expanded evening hours.

Our hope is that this effort will allow members of our community who may be working but underemployed or faced with a lack of childcare may be able to easier access assistance from our office.

One-Stop Success Story

ML first connected with the One-Stop system by meeting with our local ex-offender representative, Kim Butler. ML had been recently released from prison after being incarcerated for close to 20 years. While he had a strong support system in place after being released, he was starting over and needed help overcoming several barriers to get back to work.

Kim worked with ML on obtaining a driver's license ID, creating an employment plan, and connecting him to different One-Stop services that would be able to support him. ML was referred to the One-Stop Training Services Center, where he worked with Career Navigator Sofia Bandeira to solidify a well-researched plan to obtain employment with self-sufficient wages working in logistics and transportation as a CDL driver.

After successfully completing training and passing the DMV test, ML now needed help with applying to jobs. ML would stop by the One-Stop to use the public resource area for job applications and updating his resume. During his many visits, One-Stop staff including Teresa Edwards, Jan Goodman, and Sofia Bandeira would help him navigate the computers, complete job applications, and to offer encouragement and advice when he needed it most.

ML put in a lot of effort to improve his employment prospects and utilized every One-Stop service that was available to help him. With his positive attitude, the wrap around services provided by the One-Stop, and the patience and encouragement of One-Stop staff, ML successfully obtain full time employment as a driver – even receiving multiple job offers along the way.

HOW TO THRIVE DURING TRANSITION AND CHANGE

Times of transition hold both challenges and opportunities. What are you really committed to in this moment?

Tony Robbins once said, "Quality questions create a quality life."

- Is your behavior consistent with what you are committed to?
- Are you present and engaged in your own life?
- Are you satisfied with your choices?
- Would you like to make better choices in the future?

Our life is made up of decisions. When we ask the right questions it heightens our awareness and allows us to see more clearly. The strategies and philosophies that will be presented in this workshop provide attendees with tools that self-empower. The workshop is designed to help you achieve your personal best both professionally and personally. It's a point of view that is based on choice. Self-empowerment feeds our unconscious mind to make conscious choices that allow us to be successful.

The art of portraying a poised, self-confident image in today's demanding business atmosphere is a skill that is much too often overlooked by many professionals, but not by those observing and making critical judgments based upon the person's communication. - How to deal with feelings of powerlessness and helplessness
- Practice business etiquette to build and maintain relationships
- Learn valuable techniques to deal with difficult situations
- Deliver your message: verbal, non-verbal and written in a positive way
- Learn proper introductions and professional presence
- Proper Grooming and appearances matter

The first Hiring Event, featuring four healthcare employers, was conducted on August 23. Based upon the positive reception from employers and job seekers, more events are being planned by Jessica Johannesen, Greater Raritan's Business Services Representative. These include a Manufacturers Hiring Event, running from 9:30 to 12 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 16, in the first-floor conference room at 27 Warren St., in Somerville as well as other tentative events on Sept. 27, Oct. 4 and 11 at the same location. As start dates near, free literacy programs host testing for classes

Free adult literacy programs for English language learners of different levels are available this fall to residents of Hunterdon and Somerset counties. The program providers, Raritan Valley Community College (RVCC) and the Hunterdon County Educational Services Commission (HCECS), are part of the Greater Raritan Workforce Development Board's Literacy Committee, which seeks to share information about and expand the effectiveness of the free literacy programs in the two counties.

Programs are funded by a Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act federal grant that provides assistance to adults in gaining the necessary literacy and English skills to participate in workforce training programs and employment.

Raritan Valley Community College

RVCC offers free literacy and English language skills to help individuals prepare for employment in the in-demand food service industry. The upcoming classes will be conducted via Zoom. Classes in the Integrated English Literacy and Civics Education Program focus on skills such as listening, speaking and writing. Class participants who complete the literacy program and complete 10 hours of training in the areas of appreciation, prevention, avoidance and reduction of health hazards and safety in the workplace may receive either the ServSafe Food Handler or OSHA 10 certification, required by many entry-level restaurant or food service jobs.

Fall classes will begin in October, with testing for placement in 11 classes going on in September. The classes are planned at different times throughout the week, in the evening and daytime. The classes, planned to be 15 to 17 people each, typically meet twice a week and run for two and a half hours. Classes go through April 2023. Visit <https://www.raritanval.edu/literacy>, email Bonnie.Scharf@raritanval.edu or call 908-526-1200, ext. 8686, to schedule a placement testing session.

Hunterdon County Education Services Commission

High school equivalency, basic computer skills and English Language Acquisition classes are offered by the HCE at five in-person locations in the two counties. Eleven classes are planned to run two days per week at various times:

- In Bound Brook, evenings at the Bound Brook Library;
- In Flemington, mornings and evenings at the Flemington Adult Literacy Center on Bartles Corner Road
- In the Somerset section of Franklin, evenings at Franklin Middle School, and evenings at the Christian Center of Somerset (including a hybrid option)
- In Somerville, mornings at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

Loaner Chromebook usage is on the rise - and we're ready

In 2021, the GRWDB Board made a strategic decision to approve the purchase of 40 Chromebooks to support individuals in the area's WorkFirst program. The Chromebooks, with WiFi capability, were purchased in two groups of 20 for a total cost of $26,000, including a carrying case and mouse for each unit.

In a first-of-its-kind agreement with the GRWDB, the Chromebooks are available for loan to TANF and SNAP clients through the 11 branches of the Somerset County Library System of New Jersey (SCLSNJ); Hunterdon County residents can get them through the local area's WorkFirst vendor, Hunterdon County Educational Services Commission (HCEC). The SCLSNJ team also assisted in the development of a unique dashboard which Greater Raritan One-Stop Training Center and HCEC team members use to initiate the loan process and track the devices.

Since the program began last year, 36 individuals have used or are using the devices – in addition, another three are being picked up by individuals for September workshops.

Based on partner feedback, the board has gradually increased the number of Chromebooks available with the WiFi enabled. Starting with five, it was increased to 10 this spring and another three were just enabled in August, taking the total to 13. The goal is to assist those individuals who don't have at-home Internet access. A hotspot from the SCLSNJ also can be borrowed, as available.

The agreement each customer signs has an eight-week loan period, which can be extended as needed. Fran Leddy, the supervisor of Adult Programs and Services for the HCEC, said individuals typically keep the Chromebooks for up to three months, to assist with job searches and career development after they have completed the program's workshops.

She noted that the Chromebooks have become even more important since the HCEC began synchronous learning – so individuals who may have transportation, childcare or family issues can still participate in the workshops as they are presented in a hybrid format. "This has increased participation and is leading to a great dynamic with the staff, who can assist people more easily and flexibly," she said.

Leddy noted that four to five Chromebooks are also kept on-site to assist individuals in the offices. Depending on future customer need, SCLSNJ team leads have said they have the capacity to support up to an additional 40 Chromebooks if the GRWDB wants to increase the fleet.

The GRWDB Pathways to Recovery Program was represented at two recent community events: The Not An Easy Fix event on Aug. 21 in downtown Somerville and the Operation Helping Hands event on Aug. 27 at the Somerset Patriots' TD Bank Ballpark. GRWDB staff and team members from Pathways partner Prevention Links, talked with community members about Pathways, which provides career assistance to individuals directly or indirectly impacted by the opioid epidemic. For details, contact Pathways Navigator Nakeyda Sumpter at 908-203-6047 or at nsumpter@co.somerset.nj.us.

SkillUp Badge program plans October cohort

A New Manager Badge training program that employers can use for their recently promoted staff will be available in a virtual cohort format starting on Oct. 17.

The program is a recently introduced feature of SkillUp Greater Raritan, a free online learning portal for residents of Hunterdon and Somerset counties. This new training opportunity follows two successful pilot training cohorts conducted this spring and summer, focusing on the New Manager and Job Readiness badge pathways. The two Badge pathways allow participants to master skills needed to have competency when they are start or return to work or are in lead roles.

The Oct. 17 cohort has a commitment from one Somerset County employer and other employers are invited to take part. The training is being coordinated by Metrix Learning, the provider of the SkillUp Greater Raritan platform which has been seen more than 2,800 users complete 6,200-plus courses over the past 30 months.

For more information, on the upcoming cohort, including details on the program's nominal price structure for employers, contact Kerry Twomey at Kerry.Twomey@metrixlearning.com.

How do we operate? We have a policy for that!

Local policies, based on federal law and state guidelines, are key to realizing the Greater Raritan Workforce Development Board mission and vision. These policies set the direction for staff and the system partners tasked with providing workforce services to job seekers and employers in Hunterdon and Somerset Counties. Local policies are developed by GRWDB staff, reviewed by GRWDB Committees as appropriate and then reviewed and approved by the full GRWDB Board.

Recently, New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development released a state notice to Local Area boards to have certain policies in place by Sept. 30, 2022. As a result, staff and committee members developed and reviewed current policies as well as draft policies. Current policies are:

- Selective Service Requirements (2019)
- Supportive Services (2020)
- Youth Clients Follow Up Policy (2021)

- Incumbent Worker Training (2022)
- On-the-Job Training (2022)
- AJC /One-Stop Certification (2022)

At the next full board meeting (virtual and open to the public) at 12 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 6, these draft policies will be reviewed:

- Conflict of Interest
- Individual Training Accounts (including Youth Co-enrollment) Policy
- One-Stop Career Center Complaint Procedure
- Pay-for-Performance Contract Strategy
- Personally Identifiable and Sensitive Information (PII)
- Priority of Service
- Work-Based Training
- Youth Requires Additional Assistance
- Youth Work Experience and Incentive Payments.

Visit the www.grwdb.org calendar for meeting details.

Summer Employment, by the numbers:

Using American Rescue Plan funding, Somerset County allocated $62,200 for an additional 20 positions, with that funding available through next year. As of Aug. 31, all 40 of the state-funded positions were filled; 14 of the county-funded positions were filled.

Hunterdon County employer participants are: Hunterdon County Educational Services Commission in Califon, and Tabby's Place in Ringoes.

Somerset County employer participants are: Aurora Kitchens and Interiors, Somerville; Franklin Grace Resource Center, Franklin; Girl Scouts Heart of NJ, Bridgewater; ICNA, Franklin; Schafer Shain Jollah, Bernardsville; Shimon and Sara Birnbaum Jewish Community Center, Bridgewater;

Somerset County entities participating are: Rutgers Cooperative Extension; and the Somerset County Commissioners Office, Finance Department, Graphics Department, Office on Aging, Parks Commission, and Prosecutor's Office.

The youth participants, some in high school, some in college and some out of school, came from: Bernards, Bound Brook, Branchburg, Bridgewater, Far Hills, Franklin, Hillsborough, Manville, Montgomery, North Plainfield, Raritan Borough, Somerville and Warren Township in Somerset County; and from Lebanon and Ringoes in Hunterdon County.
