Working at Fiddleheart is perfect for teaching artists and professional performers with a strong background in youth education who are looking for a magically inspired, one-of-a-kind and delightfully short-term summer opportunity.

About Fiddleheart:

Our students know us by our full name ~Fiddleheart Academy of Witchcraft and Wizardry. Fiddleheart is an immersive and imaginative summer camp for ages 9-15. Inspired by Harry Potter and other fantasy, our students take "magical classes such as potions, magical creatures, Quidditch, etc. Classes in cooking, chemistry, ethics, the visual and performing arts, and so forth are creatively adapted to immerse our students in our imaginary school of witchcraft and wizardry (for instance, craft glue is actually troll boogers). The students also solve a mystery ~ a LARP-style storyline ~ which is guided and acted out by Professors & guest artists over the two-week session. Brief role description : Our Lead Camp Counselors are called Professors. At Fiddleheart, Professors encapsulate a combination of traditional theatre summer camp roles: equal parts camp counselor, teaching artist, and bold and creative actor and improviser. [If you are athletically inclined, see also Athletic Coach aka Quidditch Coach below as this is a similar role to Camp Counselor with an emphasis on athletic coaching and game play.] Summer 2024
